

Crime Stoppers of Houston, Inc. February 25, 2009

Crime Stoppers News Release For Immediate Use on Today's News

WHAT: Man and Woman Caught on 4100 Alvin Camera

Crime Stoppers and Investigators with the Houston Police Department's Environmental Investigations Division are seeking the public's assistance with any information on two suspects caught on the surveillance camera in the 4100 block of Alvin.

The surveillance camera caught a man and a woman as they were walking away from a vacant lot in the 4100 block of Alvin. It appears that they had just finished dumping a load of yard waste on October 25, 2007.

The suspects are described as a black male and a black female. Attached are photos of the suspects.

Dumping trash where it does not belong is a crime and citizens are urged to call Crime Stoppers if they know the identity of these two people.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline or submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org that leads to the identification, charging or arrest of any suspect in this case. All tipsters remain anonymous.