WHAT: Investigators Need Public's Help in Locating Witnesses to the Capital Murder of Henry Bang-Quy Tran

CASE DESCRIPTION: On July 17, 2007 shortly after opening his store, T- Liquor at 9902 Homestead Road Henry Bang-Quy Tran was brutally murdered. Two customers entered the store and noticed a 6' tall slender built black male with a narrow face and cornrows wearing a red shirt and blue jeans behind the plexi-glass shield with Mr. Tran. The customers felt something was wrong so they exited the store and were getting in their vehicles when they heard gun fire.

Investigators have been able to talk to one of the customers in the store but are still looking for the other customer. He has been described as a black male in his 40's, driving an older model black car. Investigators have interviewed a person of interest but the case is still open. Investigators have exhausted all the leads they have had in the case, and are asking the public's help with information that may lead to Mr. Tran's killer.

Crime Stoppers is offering up to $5,000 for information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline that leads to the identification, arrest and charging of any suspect in this case. All callers remain anonymous.
