Who Murdered Rudolph “Jay” Magwood?

Rudolph “Jay” Magwood

Crime Stoppers and HPD Homicide Investigators are seeking the public’s assistance for any information on the May 6, 2007 murder of Rudolph “Jay” Magwood.

On Sunday May 6th, 2007 around 4:20 a.m. Rudolph “Jay” Magwood was shot and killed by an unknown suspect as he was walking through the parking lot of Sunny’s Food Market located at 9303 Fondren. He had returned home between 1 and 1:30 a.m. from a friend’s house after watching the DeLaHoya/Mayweather boxing match. A short time later he told his wife he was going out again but only around the apartment complex where they lived. That was the last time he was seen alive.

Around 4:20 a.m. a witness heard three gunshots in the parking lot of Sunny’s where Mr. Magwood was later found dead. A gray four door car with damage to the passenger side was also seen leaving the parking lot immediately after the gunshots were heard.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline that leads to the identification, arrest and charging of a suspect in this case. Tips may also be submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org.
