WHAT: Engagement Ring Robbers in Baybrook Mall

CASE DESCRIPTION: On Tuesday February 26, 2008 at 1:20 p.m. 2 black males entered the Whitehall Jewelers in Baybrook Mall wanting to look at an engagement ring for a girlfriend. A female employee showed one of the suspects a solitaire engagement ring. The suspect inquired about the price of the ring as she placed it back in the display case. The suspect then reached over the counter and pushed her which caused her to fall to the floor. As the victim was falling to the floor the suspect reached into the display case and stole three diamond engagement rings. During the entire incident the second suspect was silent.

Suspect number 1 is described as a black male between 25 to 30 years old with faded tattoos on his neck and forearm in cursive. He weighs between 180 to 200 pounds and is approximately 5'11" to 6' tall with brown eyes and black hair. The silent suspect is also a black male between 25 to 30 years old, weighing around 180 to 200 pounds and approximately 5'8" to 5'11". He has brown eyes and a black crew cut. The suspects' vehicle might possibly be a 1990 to 2000 blue Nissan hatchback.

Attached are photos from a previous robbery at Samuels Jewelers in San Jacinto Mall. The same suspects are believed to have committed this robbery as well.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for information phoned in to the Crime Stoppers 713-222-8477 tips hot line that leads to the identification, arrest and charging of any suspect in this case. All callers remain anonymous.
