WHAT: Older Gentleman Robs Money Gram Center

Crime Stoppers and Investigators with the Harris County Sheriff's Office are seeking the public's assistance in identifying a well dressed older man who robbed the Money Gram Center inside a retail store located at 155 E. Louetta Crossing in Harris County.

On Tuesday September 7th, 2010 at around 1:30 in the afternoon a well dressed black male entered a local retail store and approached the cashier at the Money Gram Center in the Guest Services Area. The suspect handed the cashier a note demanding money. He made some type of hand gesture and the cashier thought he was reaching for a gun. In fear for her life, she complied with his demands and handed him some money. The suspect took the money and walked out of the store. He drove off in a gray or silver newer model Nissan Altima.

The suspect is described as a clean shaven black male between 60 to 65 years old. He is 5'6" to 5'7" tall and weighs around 160 to 180 pounds. He was wearing a dark hat, black jacket, black pants and black dress shoes. The suspect has been seen inside the store on a few other occasions.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline or submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org that leads to the identification, charging or arrest of the suspect in this case. Tips can also be sent by text message - Text TIP610 plus your tip to CRIMES (274637). All tipsters remain anonymous.
