Crime Stoppers News Release

WHAT: Suspect Wanted for Aggravated Robbery

Crime Stoppers and Investigators with the Houston Police Department are seeking the public's assistance in identifying a man who robbed the Courtesy Booth at a grocery store located in the 200 block of W. 20th Street.

On Thursday September 9th, 2010 at around 2:30 in the afternoon the suspect walked into the grocery store and waited in line at the Courtesy Booth. When it was his turn at the counter, he raised up his shirt and showed the clerk a gun. He placed a bag on the counter and demanded the clerk give him some money. After receiving the money he walked out of the store. He left the scene in a 2000-2005 four door gold Pontiac Grand Prix.

The suspect is a 50 to 60 year old white male with gray hair. He is around 5'10" to 6'0" tall and weighs between 180 to 200 pounds. He had on dark rimmed glasses. This suspect might be responsible for a similar type robbery that occurred on Monday October 25th at a grocery store located in the 1000 block of N. Shepherd.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline or submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org that leads to the identification, charging or arrest of the suspect in this case.
