Narrative:

In late 2000 and early 2001, 44-year-old Margarita Castro Castillo acted as caretaker for two young girls who were not blood relatives while their mother was out of the apartment. The girls were ages 9 and 11 at that time.

In January of 2007, both girls testified to authorities at the Children’s Assessment Center that Castillo had touched them inappropriately with his hands during this time. The younger victim said Castillo would give her a dollar each time it occurred, and tell her not to tell her mother.

The older victim said Castillo also made genital-to-genital contact with her on or about January 1, 2001.

After further investigation, Castillo was charged with Aggravated Sexual Assault of a Child Under the age of 14, and warrants 1105661 and 1105662 were issued for his arrest by the 208th District Court on February 23, 2007, with a $30,000 bond on each warrant. The warrants were confirmed upon Castillo’s indictment on each charge on June 13, 2007.

Castillo absconded, and has eluded capture thus far, though he is believed still to be in the Houston area.
