

Crime Stoppers of Houston, Inc. February 27, 2009

Crime Stoppers News Release For Immediate Use on Today's News

WHAT: Another Suspect Caught in the Act at 4100 Alvin

Crime Stoppers and Investigators with the Houston Police Department's Environmental Investigations Division are seeking the public's assistance with any information on a suspect illegally dumping yard waste in a vacant lot.

The suspect was caught on a surveillance camera in the 4100 block of Alvin dragging broken branches in the vacant lot on May 7, 2008. It appears the lot already had a lot of yard debris on it. The City of Houston provides heavy trash and yard debris removal for its citizens. Dumping yard waste on a vacant lot is illegal.

The suspect is a black male and attached are two photos of the suspect.

Illegal Dumping costs the citizens of Houston nearly $5 million each year. Anyone who might recognize this man is urged to call Crime Stoppers.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $5,000 for any information called in to the 713-222-8477 tips hotline or submitted online at www.crime-stoppers.org that leads to the identification, charging or arrest of any suspect in this case. All tipsters remain anonymous.